

EDHS SPRING 2015 COLLEGE ANNOUNCEMENTS

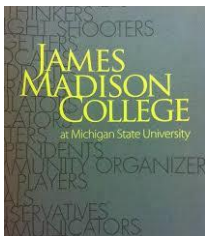

REMINDER: East Detroit High School will be hosting a College Fair on April 29th from 6:30-8:30. This is a free event that is open to all middle and high school students and their families! Public and private colleges from throughout the state of Michigan will be sending representatives to answer your questions and share information about their schools and programs.

Grand Valley State University is hosting Grand Valley Laker Experience Day for JUNIORS to visit campus, hear some small group presentations or have an individual appointment. The two dates are Friday, March 27 and Friday, April 3, 2015. Register by visiting www.gvsu.edu/visit and clicking on events or call 800-748-0246.

Wayne State University is hosting their Spring Open House on THIS Saturday, March 28 from 10 am – 1 pm on the Main Campus. For more information and to make your reservation visit www.openhouse.wayne.edu or call 313-577-2100.

Also THIS Saturday, is the Oakland University Go for the Gold event. All high school students are invited to learn more about OU. Interested students may sign up at www.oakland.edu/visit

Michigan State University's James Madison College of Public and International Affairs is hosting JUNIOR visit days on April 6th, April 8th and April 17th beginning at 10 am. Space is limited, so please register online at www.jmc.msu.edu/visit.

University of Michigan – Dearborn is hosting their Spring Open House on Saturday, April 11 from Noon – 3:30 pm. Attend a college course, explore degree programs and tour the campus. Register online today at www.umdearborn.edu/springopenhouse.

Utica Community School is hosting a College Fair is scheduled for April 16 from 6:30-8:00 pm at Henry Ford II. Come and talk with the admissions advisors about their schools. All in-state and numerous out-of-state schools will be in attendance.

The Citadel is hosting their Open House called Discover the Citadel on Friday, April 17. If you are looking at a federal service academy, senior military college and are interested in ROTC scholarships, check this out. Registration begins promptly at 12:30 pm in the lobby of Mark Clark Hall. Space is extremely limited, so timely registration is preferred. Register by calling 800-868-1842.

NEW SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

Have fun and enjoy personal enrichment classes with academically-motivated students from around the world in Duke University's Summer Academy for High School Students. Students currently in grades 9 - 12 are eligible to apply.

Spaces are still available in:

The Global Entrepreneur: learn problem solving skills and learn about the needs, opportunities and complexities of the global market.

The Global Healer: learn about his class the most pressing health issues facing the world today and about different cultural perspectives on medicine.

The Global Leader: learn leadership skills and learn about diplomacy and Model United Nations. For more information students should check out

<http://summersession.duke.edu/high-school-students>

College for Creative Studies has their new Summer Precollege information out for students ages 13-19. Classes include animation, life drawing, fashion and more. Information is available in the Career Center.

George Washington University offers students an extraordinary opportunity for an enriching academic summer experience. Courses range from 6-week online classes to opportunities in the Arts, Economics, Law & Government, Writing & Communications and Medicine, and more. To learn more or to register, check out www.precollege.gwu.edu

Pratt Institute also has a Pre-College Summer Program. Immerse yourself in Art, Design, Architecture, Creative Writing or Cultural Studies. Scholarships are available, with a March 14 deadline.

To learn more, go to www.preco@pratt.edu

Oakland University still has spots available in their summer camps. Camps include Engineering & Computer Science, STEM camp, Career Exploration Camp and Nursing & Health Sciences Camp. Fliers are available in the Counseling office.

Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising is hosting their 3-days of Fashion this summer. Hand-on workshops include Fashion Draping, Learning Fashion Sketching, Drawing Shoe designs and discovering the art of trend spotting. Space is limited. Students are responsible for airfare and hotel accommodations. Learn more by texting FIDMSummer to 57682.

Michigan Tech Summer Youth Programs are available for students completing grades 6-11. The programs are built around hands-on activities, field trips, and team projects. Programs are available in Engineering, Science & Technology, Computers and Business, Humanities & Social Sciences. To learn more, go to www.wyp.mtu.edu or call 906-487-2219. Information is available in the Counseling/Career Center.

Five Pre-College Programs at Boston University are available to high school students. Programs range from a six-week residential college program where student can earn up to eight transferable college credits to a one-week non-credit class where students can explore one subject of interest. Check out the offerings at www.bu.edu/summer/highschool .

Kettering University is hosting LITE (Lives Improve Through Engineering) – a two-week residential program for girls who complete 11th grade by July 1. To learn how math, science and technology can help find solutions to human problems, go to www.kettering.edu/lite. Application deadline is April 24.

